Annual Update

Warren RECC

WADE HARRIS

In July, we were delighted to see many of you at our 2026 annual meeting, where we discussed the past year and our commitment to you, our members. At Warren RECC, we are responsible for making sure you have the reliable electricity you need to power your daily life. We are dedicated to improving the quality of life in our communities. To do that, we work together to make sure we have the highest performing organization possible. We collaborate with the communities we serve, from sharing with our students to working closely with our new businesses. As the energy landscape evolves, these roles are more important than ever. We are proud to serve the eight counties in our service territory, and we thank you for your membership.

2025 AT A GLANCE

- Reliability – Power was on 99.97% of the time.
- Growth – In 2025, Warren RECC welcomed 1,506 new members.
- High-Speed Internet – Service is now available to nearly 34,000 of our members and is expanding daily.

Warren RECC is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

Board members start new terms Aug. 1

On Aug. 1, two Warren RECC board members will begin new terms:

Pamela Decker—District 4, Barren and Edmonson counties

District 4 Board Member Pam Decker has been a Warren RECC member since 1981. She serves as chief operating officer at Franklin Bank & Trust and has spent most of her career as a community banker in South Central Kentucky. Before joining Franklin Bank in 2023, Pam had retired from banking and entered higher education as an assistant professor of business at Lindsey Wilson College and continues to share her professional knowledge as an adjunct professor at WKU.

Pam has served on numerous boards and committees, including the Edmonson County Industrial Authority, BRADD, American Red Cross and the Kentucky Center for Leadership. She has also volunteered with various nonprofit organizations providing financial literacy and credit counseling including the People's Opportunity Program for Underserved Populations, administered by the Bowling Green Housing Authority. She is a member of Cedar Springs United Baptist Church in Edmonson County. She and her husband, Hoppy, reside in the Pig community. They have two children, Nadina Alexander and Jacob Decker, and five grandchildren.

Tim Purcell—District 7, Grayson County

District 7 Board Member Tim Purcell has been a Warren RECC member since 1987. He is a lifelong farmer raising beef cattle, corn and soybeans.

He and his wife, Carla, are members of the Caneyville Christian Church and Grayson County Farm Bureau. They have two sons and daughters-in-law, one grandson and a granddaughter due in July.
